Good morning Mr. Conti,

I've reached out to our legal team for a status update on the release of the FOIA documents to you. I'm waiting to hear back, and I'll send you an update on the FOIA request once I do. I apologize for the delay in response.

Thank you,
Katherine

Dear Ms. Cartoski:

I am following up on the status of the GSA's production of documents in response to the above-referenced request. During our phone call on May 21, 2019, you informed me that the GSA was unable to meet its May 24th production deadline. However, you indicated that the revised deadline to produce documents was May 28th.

At this time we have not received any documents, nor have we received a confirmation that that GSA will be producing documents today. I also note that we have requested the GSA begin a rolling production of any documents that are currently available, but that request has been ignored. Will you please let us know when we can expect to receive documents and by what means they will be transmitted? My client has been patiently waiting for well over a year now and the ongoing delays are extremely prejudicial.

Sincerely,

Christopher Conti
